Friends!

Wrigley's is a constant friend to teeth, breath, appetite and digestion.

The refreshment and comfort of this toothsome, long-lasting confection is within the reach of everybody.

Its benefits are many—its cost small. That's why it's used around the world. Nothing else can take its place.

Chew it after every meal

WRAPPED IN UNITED COUPONS

HONOLULU WILL CENSOR MAIL TO CENTRAL POWERS

Private correspondence allowed to pass from the United States to the Central Powers, and from those nations back to America, hereafter will be censored by W. R. Castle, Jr., a Honolulu man, to whose department of the Red Cross this important work was lately assigned.

At the request of the department of state, the Red Cross is taking over the censorship of correspondence intended for Germany, Austria, Turkey and Bulgaria, and persons desiring to inquire regarding the welfare of friends or relatives residing in territory belonging to or occupied by the Central Powers should communicate with the bureau of communication, American Red Cross, Washington, D. C. Proper inquiries will be transmitted to Geneva, Switzerland, and from there to the persons for whom they are intended.

The following points are to be observed by all inquirers.

1. Letters of inquiry must be addressed to the bureau of communication; not to the person concerning whom inquiry is made.
2. Letters must be concise, since only the briefest communication can be sent.
3. They must mention only personal matters, such as communications concerning the condition of members of the family and requests for similar information.
4. Letters must be legible and must be in English, French, Italian, Russian, German, Polish, Hungarian, Turkish or Greek.
5. They must include the full name, address and occupation of the sender, and the full name, address, occupation and age of the person for whom the inquiry is destined.
6. Inquiries concerning the same person may not be made oftener than once in six weeks.

The bureau of communication reserves the right to refuse to transmit any information or inquiry which appears to be contrary to the national welfare.

FRENCH LAUNDRY UNAFFECTED BY OIL SHORTAGE

Scarcity of fuel oil in Honolulu will have no effect on the French Laundry. Because Proprietor Abadie at considerable expense equipped his establishment entirely with electric power, this laundry is able to continue its business of cleaning and dyeing clothes regardless of the oil situation.—Adv.

STAR SEEN IN DOMESTIC DRAMA

"Sleeping Fires," a strong dramatic offering from the pen of George Middleton, written expressly for Pauline Frederick and produced by the Famous Players Film Company, is the feature offering at the Liberty theater and will continue through the early part of the week. "Sleeping Fires" should bring out good audiences, as it is a powerful drama.

Unlike the usual feature in which Miss Frederick is cast, she here appears as a good woman. Not that she is usually bad—in the pictures—but that her average role shows her, well, as Zaza, Bella Donna, Sapho and in like parts. As Zelma Bryce, in "Sleeping Fires," she is a faithful wife and mother. The husband and father (John Sainpolis) in this instance being the villain. Zelma is forced to fight a life and death battle for her own son, the father being willing to use the little lad as a weapon with which to secure a divorce in order that he may wed his secretary.

Pauline Frederick is easily the star of the production, although she has excellent support in Thomas Meighan, one of the idols of followers of Paramount pictures and Maury Stewart, a youthful actor who appears as the son, being billed as "The Little Fellow."

There is ample opportunity for Miss Frederick to demonstrate in this character her versatility and to win for her, stronger than ever, the title of "the screen's greatest emotional actress."

CHARLIE CHAPLIN AGAIN IN TOWN

"C. C." is here—the initials meaning Charlie Chaplin. Which announcement should be productive of mammoth crowds at the Hawaii theater during the next several days.

"The Floor Walker," is the latest Chaplain success and the latest Hawaii attraction. Those who have seen Chaplain and know the job of a floor walker should have no trouble in imagining just how funny this film really is. He finds more ways to produce mirth than the average individual would believe possible.

Charlie Chaplin is a good tonic for the "tired business man" and his entire family. He is equally as effective with the businessmen who is not so tired. The old folks enjoy the comedian and so do the young ones. Chaplin caters to no particular age, sex or class. He is a people's mirth-maker.

Usually, a comedy is billed as an "added attraction," not so with Chaplin. The added attraction at the Hawaii for the early part of the week is "The Jungle Child," a strong Triangle feature.

ANOTHER BEACH FILM AT BIJOU

William Farnum appeared in the leading role in that famous photodrama "The Spoilers" and he became famous. Since that production he has been one of the prime favorites of the silent drama, and while he has appeared in a number of great successes, the greatest of all is easily "The Spoilers," edition de luxe, now being shown at the Bijou theater.

While the original edition was one of the biggest attractions ever brought to Honolulu, the producers felt there was something lacking and "tried again." In the second edition there are but few changes in the cast and these for the better. Farnum still appears as Glenister, while Kathryn Williams has been added, essaying the role of Cherry Malotte, the dance hall girl who plays such a prominent part in the screen story.

It is likely that the fight scene in "The Spoilers" has called for more comment than any one scene ever photographed. In the present offering the fight scene stands out above all others.

"The Spoilers" is on its farewell tour, the picture rights expiring in the near future and anyone who misses the Bijou during the present week will miss one of the really big things of the camera.

The initiation of candidates will take up most of the time at the meeting of Excelsior Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F. tomorrow evening.
